Claim on your policy by calling us on 13 27 22

We understand that having your caravan or trailer damaged or stolen is a stressful experience – we can answer all your questions and help you with everything that needs to be done.

Call us as soon as possible if your caravan or trailer has been:

- damaged and/or has caused damage to another person's property;
- stolen – report the theft immediately to the police and us.

You can help us by noting the details of the incident. Other than telling us what happened, the most important details we need are:

- the registration number of any other vehicles involved; and
- the names, addresses and phone numbers of their drivers, the owners of any other property damaged and any witnesses.

Excesses

An excess is the amount you must contribute towards each claim. The excesses we apply are:

- Basic Excess – applies to all claims.
- Age Excess – applies based on the driver of the vehicle towing the caravan or trailer at the time of the incident.
- Additional Excess – may be applied when some aspects of the caravan or trailer or drivers to be insured fall outside our normal underwriting guidelines.

We will tell you if any excesses apply to your claim and, if so, whether payment is to us, to the repairer or whether we will deduct it from any amount we pay you.

You will not have to pay an excess for claims resulting from:

- incidents involving another vehicle where we agree the driver of the other vehicle is at fault;
- the theft of your caravan or trailer;
- malicious damage to your caravan or trailer;

and you can provide us with the name, address and registration number of the person responsible.

For all other claims, any excesses that apply must be paid by you.

When your caravan or trailer has been damaged

When your caravan or trailer has been accidentally damaged in an incident covered by your policy, at our option we will, either:

- repair your caravan or trailer; or
- pay you the cost of repairing your caravan or trailer; or
- declare your caravan or trailer a total loss.

If your caravan or trailer can be safely repaired we will choose the repairer and ensure that the repair is properly completed.

You must:

- make your caravan or trailer available to us if we require it;
- not carry out or have any repair work carried out without our prior authorisation other than 'Emergency Repairs' – see page 7.

Guaranteed repairs

We guarantee the quality of the materials and workmanship used in repairs we authorise for as long as you own your caravan or trailer. We will rectify any problems arising from the repair that we agree have been caused by faulty materials or workmanship.

About No Claim Bonuses

Your No Claim Bonus

Your No Claim Bonus is a discount on the premium payable and is shown on your current schedule. For each year you do not claim on your policy, the discount increases until it reaches a set maximum.

Some types of claims do not affect your No Claim Bonus

Your No Claim Bonus will not be affected if:

- you are involved in an accident where we agree the driver of the other vehicle is at fault, and you can tell us the name and address of the driver who was at fault and the registration number of the vehicle they were driving;
- your claim is for malicious damage or theft of your caravan and trailer, and you can tell us the name and address of the person responsible for the damage to your caravan and trailer.

For all other claims your No Claim Bonus will be affected.

About your premium

How we calculate your premium

When we calculate your premium, we take a number of factors into account including, but not limited to:

- the period of insurance;
- the make, model and year of the insured caravan or trailer;
- the address where you normally keep the insured caravan or trailer;
- the security measures you have in place;
- the caravan or trailer's Agreed Value;
- the excesses payable by you in the event of a claim;
- your previous insurance and driving history; and
- your other RACT Insurance policies, if any.

The total premium payable by you also includes compulsory government charges (including duties and GST). The details are shown on your current schedule.

Why the cost of insurance can change

Each time you renew your insurance, your premium is likely to change, even if your personal circumstances have not changed. The premiums we charge are affected by factors including:

- the cost of claims we have paid;
- the expected cost of future claims;
- any effect from a claim you have made;
- any changes in government taxes and charges; and
- our business administration costs.

Special offers

The special offers and benefits we advertise from time to time may not be detailed in this policy. Details are available from us on request. The offers may be withdrawn at any time.

Paying your premium

At our option, you may pay your premium annually or in instalments.

Payment in full

If your premium is not paid by the due date, you may not be covered for any claims.

Payment by instalments

- We accept payment by instalments at our option.

 - ensuring that sufficient funds are available in your nominated account to pay each instalment.
- You must tell us immediately if you change any of the account details.
- If the account details you provide are incorrect or there are insufficient funds in your account, any additional fees or administration costs incurred because of the non-payment are payable by you.
- If you are paying by instalments, any unpaid portion of the total premium for the current period of insurance must be paid by you before your claim can be settled. We will advise you if we decide to deduct the outstanding premium from your claims settlement.

Payment schedule

- Your first payment will be withdrawn from your nominated account within five working days of your direct debit arrangement being set up.
- Subsequent payments will be deducted on your nominated day.
- If we are unable to process your payment on your nominated date, we will do so as soon as possible.

Renewal payment by instalments

- If you already have an existing instalment agreement with us and we invite renewal, at renewal time your policy will be automatically renewed and instalments deducted unless you inform us otherwise.

Changing your arrangement with us

- If you need to change any details of your direct debit arrangement please let us know before:
 - your next scheduled payment; or
 - the due date of the payment to which the changes will apply.

Overdue payments

- If your payment is overdue by:
 - more than 14 days after its due date, we may refuse any claim made for incidents occurring during the period the policy is unpaid;

- If two or more payment requests are not honoured by your financial institution, we may cancel your policy. We will advise you in writing if we are going to cancel your policy.
- If you cancel your payment arrangements, all outstanding amounts will be due and payable within 14 days from the cancellation date. If payment is not made, your policy will be cancelled and we will confirm the cancellation in writing.
- We may employ an external agency to collect payments owed to us.
- We accept payment by instalments at our option. We may not offer this option on future cover if there is a history of not meeting instalment payment obligations.

Important general information

Our agreement with you

When we agree to enter into a policy with you, we will provide you with a schedule which sets out the cover you have and what you have told us about your caravan or trailer, you, your joint policyholders, if any, and the regular drivers of your caravan or trailer. Your current schedule, this PDS and any supplementary PDS we may give you make up your agreement with us.

Please read the current schedule to ensure the details it provides are correct – if anything needs changing please call us. Please keep these documents in a safe place.

More than one insured

If your current schedule shows more than one named insured, any actions including, but not limited to, changes, requests, cancellations, omissions, statements, claims or acts generated by one insured will be treated as having come from all those named as insured on your current schedule.

We may agree to make any requested changes without notice to any other person named as insured on the current schedule.

Changes to your policy

If you want to change your policy and we agree to it, the change will become effective when we give you written confirmation of our agreement to the change and you pay any additional premium required.

Notices

We will give you any notice in writing. The notice will be effective if it is delivered to you personally or if it is delivered to your address last known to us.

You will receive a notice at least 14 days before the end of your current period of insurance advising you whether we are prepared to renew your cover.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Our decision to insure you is based on the information you provide when entering into and during the contract of insurance. That information will apply to you and anyone else to be covered by this policy. If your answers are not accurate and complete it may result in future claims being reduced or refused and/or your policy being cancelled.

Cooling-off period

You have 21 days from the commencement of your policy in which you can cancel it. All you need to do is contact us. You do not need to give us any reason. Provided you have not made a claim under the policy, we will cancel it and provide you with a full refund of the premium you have paid.

Cancelling your policy

You may cancel your policy at any time. The date of cancellation will be the date we receive your request. We will refund any premium you have paid for the period after the date of cancellation, less our cancellation fee.

If you are paying your insurance by instalments, any refund will be credited against your remaining instalments.

If the refund is less than the fee, a refund will not be issued.

We can cancel your policy in any way permitted by law. If we do so, we will:

- give you prior notice in writing; and
- refund any premium you have paid for the period after the date of cancellation, but we will charge a cancellation fee.

Co-operation

Any benefits we give you or any other person under the policy depend on you or any other person covered by the policy giving us any information and help that we require, including attending court to give evidence.

You or any other person covered by the policy must assist us even if we have already paid a claim, as we may attempt to recover from a party who caused you to suffer the loss or damage. We may also want to defend you if it is alleged that you caused someone else loss or damage.

If you or any other person covered by any policy receive any letters, notices or court documents relating to any incident that has or might result in a claim, you must send these to us immediately.

If you fail to fully co-operate with us regarding any part of the claim process, we may be entitled to cancel your policy, refuse to pay your claim or be entitled to recover any monies paid under the claim.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Any amounts we may pay under this policy include GST.

When claiming, you will need to provide details of any entitlement to input tax credits on your premium if you are registered or should be registered for GST purposes.

When we make a payment to you for repair or replacement of an insured item and you would be entitled to claim an input tax credit for the repair or replacement, we may reduce the settlement amount we pay by the amount of that input tax credit.

Updating our PDS

From time to time, we may need to update the information contained in this PDS.

When we do so, we will issue a Supplementary PDS.
